The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree renumerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts, The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtuous are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

HOUSE AND FARM.

Management of Cows.—A cow newly come in should not drink cold water in cold weather, but moderately warm slop. Calves intended for raising, should be taken from the cow within a few days, and they will be less liable to suck when they are old. Feed them first on new milk, taking care that all changes are gradual, by adding only a portion at first.

Hearty eaters are desirable for cows, and may usually be selected while calves.—A dainty calf will be a dainty cow.

Heifers dried up too early after calving, will always run dry about the same time in after years—therefore be careful to milk closely the first year, until about six weeks before calving.

Spring cows should come in while they are yet fed on hay, and before they are turned to grass, which will be more likely to prevent caked bag and milk fever.

Feed dry cows well; give them a daily feed of meal of some kind, cornmeal and wheat bran, or corn meal and oil cake, or some other milk-producing or fattening diet. You will get it all back when you begin to milk.

Your cattle should never stop growing until they come to full maturity. They will surely stop and thenceforth have that stunted, weakly look so common among "scrubs" unless they are sheltered and so well fed that they do not lose flesh.

How to Cure a Felon.—A physician in Moore's Rural New Yorker, has no confidence in any of the "sure cures for a felon," which are so abundant, and of which everybody recommends. He says:—

"The true treatment is go at once to your surgeon, before the felon is twenty-four hours old, and let him open the finger down to the bone and out to the end, supposing the finger to be the seat of the affection. This lets the imprisoned blood out and relieves the pain at once. Then poultice for a day or two, and the finger will be well and not deformed or injured. This is the "short, sharp and decisive" plan, besides being the most merciful and least painful."

Remedy for Summer complaint.—A correspondent of the Scientific American states that a tea made of the seeds of the Sunflower, roasted like coffee berries, are an admirable remedy for all species of summer complaint. A half pint of the seed is sufficient, It should be remembered, however, that serious results often follow the too sudden stoppage of diarrhœa by astringents, and with this, as all remedies of a similar nature, caution should be used.

A Cure for Ear-Ache.—There is scarcely any ache to which children are subject, so bad to bear and so difficult to cure as ear-ache. But there is a remedy never known to fail. Take a bit of cotton batting, put upon it a pinch of black pepper, gather it up and tie it, dip it in sweet oil, and insert it in the ear. Put a flannel bandage over the head to keep it warm. It will give immediate relief.

How to Clean Oil Cloth.—To ruin them—clean them with hot water or soap suds, and leave them half wiped, and they will look very bright while wet, and very dingy and dirty when dry, and soon crack and peal off. But if you wish to preserve them and have them look new and nice, wash them with soft flannel and luke warm water, and wipe them thoroughly dry. If you want them to look extra nice, after they are dry, drop a few spoonfu's of milk over them and rub with a small dry cloth.

WOMAN'S WORK.

Darning little stockings
For restless idle feet;
Washing little faces,
To keep them fresh and sweet;
Hearing bible lessons,
Teaching catechism,
Praying for salvation,
From heresy and schism,
Woman's work.

Sewing on the buttons,
Overseeing rations,
Soothing with a kind word
Other lamentations,
Guiding clumsey Bridgets,
Coaxing sullen cooks,
Entertaining company
And reading recent books,
Woman's work.

Burying out of sight
Her own unhealing smarts;
Letting in the sunshine
On other clouded hearts;
Binding up the wounded,
Healing of the sick,
Bravely marching onward
Through dangers dark and thick,
Woman's work.

Leading little children
And blessing manhood's years;
Showing to the sinful
How God's forgiveness cheers;
Scattering sweet roses
Along another's path;
Smiling by the wayside,
Content with what she hath,
Woman's work.

Letting fall her own tears
Where only God can see;
Wiping off another's
With tender sympathy;
Learning by experience,
Teaching by example;
Yearning for the gateway,
Golden, pearly, ample,
Woman's work.

At last cometh silence—
A day of sweet repose;
Her locks smoothly braided,
Upon her breast a rose;
Lashes resting gently
Upon the marble cheek;
A look of blessed peace
Upon her forehead meek.

The hands softly folded,
The kindly pulses still;
The cold lips know no smile,
The noble heart no thrill;
Her pillow needs no smoothing,
She craveth for no care—
Love's tenderest entreaty
Wakes no responses there.

A grave in the valley,
Tears, bitter sobs, regret;
Another lesson taught,
That life may not forget;
A face forever hidden,
A race forever run;
"Dust to dust," the preacher saith,
And woman's work is done.

THE SKELETON HAND.

Yielding to a miserable habit had ruined me. It had blasted my prospects, destroyed by business, alienated my friends, and brought me down to the lowest point of existence. The habit had altogether overcome me. In vain I struggled against it. The imploring looks and words of my wife; the sight of my wanfaced and emaciated children turning their eyes to me, the author at once of their being and of their misery; the spectacle of the proud home and broad lands, once mine, but now in the hands of strangers—all these, which might well have slung to madness or driven to despair a less degraded being, reached me not, nor affected me in the depth of my degradation. I had reached a point at which no motive that might be urged could any longer affect me.

One evening I was sitting in my miserable home. The children were asleep in bed. They had cried themselves to sleep in hunger. My wife sat opposite me on the other side of the wretched fire-place stitching some rags of clothing. I was sullen and silent.

At last I felt a craving for the stimulous that now was necessary for my life. Rising, I walked up to a cupboard where it was kept. My wife knew well my intention. She followed me with her eyes.

I went there desperate and carcless—only eager for the gratification of my appetite.

I reached forth my hand tremblingly seized the bottle, and was about raising it to my lips.

But at that very instant, just as the bottle touched my lips, I felt a terrible sensation. It was as though some one had grasped my throat.

"Wife!" I cried in a deep fierce voice, "Hag! do you dare?" and turning, with clenched fist, I struck at what I supposed was my wife. For I thought she was trying in a violent way in desperation to keep me from drink.

But to my surprise I saw my wife sitting by the fire place with her work in her hand, looking at me in wonder.

It could not have been her evidently.

A terrible feeling passed through me. Shudderingly I raised my hand to feel what was at my throat, or if there was anything at all which seemed to be grasping me so tightly.

Horror of horrors!

As I raised my hand I felt the unmistakable outline of a bony thumb and bony fingers pressed against my flesh. It was a skeleton hand! that clutched me by the throat.

My hand fell down powerless by my side; the bottle crashed on the floor. My children awoke at the noise, and wife and children all stared at me with white faces.

There I trembling in every limb stood, transfixed with terror, the awful feeling of the supernatural now fully possessing me. I drew away my body, but my head was still held by the same dread and invisible power. I could not move that.

Unspeakable horror filled me. None but those who have experienced something like this know what it is to have such feelings. The body seems paralyzed, while the mind seems to be endowed with extraordinary activity, and thus possesses new capacities for suffering.

But at last I felt the grasp relax. I staggered back, the grasp ceased altogether and I drew off to another corner of the room endeavoring to go as far as possible from the place where this mysterious thing had seized me.

Soon my wife and children turned away, the former to work, the latter to sleep. They knew not what it was that affected me, but concluded that it was some pain arising from sickness or sudden faintness. I did not speak a word but resumed my former seat.

And now, gradually, my craving returned. Yet how could I satisfy it? My bottle was broken. And it lay in fragments on the floor. All my liquor was gone. What was I to do? The craving became irresistable. I had to yield.

So I took my hat, fumbled in my pockets and found a few cents, and taking an old bottle that lay in the corner, I went forth into the darkness. It was not without some feeling of trepidation that I entered the dark passage-way. Fearless the same Thing of Horror might return agitated me. But I passed on unharmed, reached my old resort where I laid my bottle on the counter. The clerk soon filled it. With an irresistable impulse I clutched the bottle and rushe forth to drink the liquor.

I hurried off for a little distance and came to the head of a wharf. Here unable any longer to resist my craving I pulled out the cork so as to drink.

It was very dark. No one was near me. In the distance rose the low hum of the city; out in the harbor might be heard the noise of sailors and boatmen. I had a general idea of this as I stood there, though all my thoughts were concentrated on the bottle. At last I raised it to my mouth.

Scarce had the bottle touched my lips when again I experienced that terrible felling.

My throat was seized; this time more violently, more fiercely, as if by some power which had already warned me, and was enraged at having to repeat the warning. My throat was compressed painfully in that fierce grip; there was anger in it. A thrill of horror shot through me. Again the bottle fell from my trembling hands and was crushed to fragments upon the stone pavement. Again I raised my hands to my throat, though in deadly fear; but the motion was mechanical—a natural and involuntary effort to tear away the thing that seized my throat,—to free myself from the pain and horror of that mysterious grasp. Again I raised my hands, and again I felt there under my touch, plain and unmistakable, the long, hard, bony hand which I had felt before. One touch was enough. My hands fell down. I tried to shriek, but in vain, I grasped for breath, and thought that I would be suffocated.

But at length the grasp slowly and unwillingly relaxed. I breathed more freely. At length the touch was no longer felt.

I paced the streets for a long time. At first every vestige of my appetite had been driven away by the horror of that moment. As time passed it began to return. Once more I felt the craving. True, the fear of another attack was strong, and for a long time deterred me; but at last the craving grew too strong for the fear.

Nerving myself up to a desperate pitch of resolution, I returned back to the shop where I had first purchased the liquor.

"See here!" I cried, "I'm crazy for a drink. I broke that bottle! Give me a glass, for God's sake—only one glass!"

Something in my face seemed to excite the man's commiseration. He poured out a glass for me in silence.

With trembling eagerness I reached out my hand to seize it. With trembling hand I raised it toward my lips. The grateful fumes already entered my nostrils. My lips already touched the edge of the glass.

Suddenly my throat was seized with a tremendious grasp.

It was as though the power which was tormenting me had become enraged by my repeated acts of opposition, and wished now by this final act to reduce me to subjection forever.

It was as if this power was using with me the means of coercing which one uses with a dog, viz: beat him for each offence, and each time harder until he is cured.

This time the grasp was terrible, it was fiercer than ever; quick, impetuous.

In that dread grasp my breath ceased.

I struggled. My senses reeled. I raised my hands in my despair. I felt again the bony fingers. I moved my hands along the bony arms.

In my madness I struggled. I struck out my fists wildly. They struck against what seemed bony ribs.

The time during which I struggled seemed endless. The horror that was on me cannot be told.

At last all sense left me.

When I revived I found myself lying on a rude bench in the bar. It was early dawn. No one was near. All my bones ached. I rose up confusedly, not knowing at first where I was, but soon the terrific event which had overpowered me came to my memory.

I rose to my feet, and tried to get out. The noise that I made awaked some one inside. He called out to me:

"Hallow there! Are you off?"

"Yes," I said.

"Wait, I'll let you out."

He appeared in a short time.

"You had a bad turn," said he, not unkindly. "You'd better take care of yourself, and not be out at nights."

I thanked him and left.

When I reached the house my wife waked up and looked half fearful at me. Amazement came over her face as she saw that I was sober. I kissed her and sat down in silence.

She looked at me in wonder. Tears fell from her eyes. She said nothing, but I saw that she was praying.

As soon as the shops were opened I went and managed to procure some food which I brought to the room. I then left to go to my employment. Through the day I felt an incessant craving, but my horror was so great that I would far rather have cut my throat than risked having that hand there again.

As the days passed the horror remained undiminished. It was simply impossible for me to seek for intoxicating drink. I dared not.

My wife said nothing. I saw, however, by her soft eyes, the gentle joy of her face, and the sweet loving smile with which she welcomed me home, how deeply this change in me affected her.

Weeks passed and gradually the craving lessened. Yet so vivid was the remembrance of that dread experience of mine that my horror remained fresh and unabated. To relapse was impossible. I dared not.

Thus forced to be sober, my circumstances improved rapidly. There was no longer any danger of want. Comfort came, and peace, and hope, and pure domestic joy.

Remorse for the sufferings which I had caused to my sweet wife made me more eager to make amends for the past, that so I might efface better memories from her mind. The revulsion of feeling was so great for her that she forgot that I had ever been other than kind. I made no parade of reform. I made no promises and no vow. Nor did she ever allude to the change. She showed her joy in her face and manner. She accepted the change when it came and rejoiced in it.

I still felt an anxious desire to get to the bottom of this mystery, and once I told the whole story to my medical man.

He was not at all surprised.

Doctors never are. Nor are Doctors ever at a loss to account for any thing.

"Pooh," said he indifferently.—"That's common enough. It was mania a potu. The brain, you know, becomes congested, and you see and feel devils and skeletons. Cases like yours are common enough.

To me, however, my case seemed very uncommon, but whether it be so or not my case has resulted in my salvation. And never will cease, even amidst my horror, to be grateful to that Power which came down clothed in terror to snatch me from ruin with that Skeleton Hand.

NOT TRUE.

The Inquirer, of last week, in an article on the Registry Law, says that by the abolition of Spring elections, "the yearly expense to the whole people for holding elections, will by this one feature of the bill be reduced one half." It is true that there will be no expense for some few items heretofore incurred by the county in the election of borough and township officers, but the cost of election blanks still remains, and as the labor of election officers is doubled, by fixing the election of township and borough officers on the day of the general election, of course nothing will be saved in the pay of those officers. Moreover, it is not true that the annual election expenses are decreased by this Registry Law. On the other hand they are increased. What little is saved in the abolition of Spring elections, is overbalanced by the additional pay of Assessors, Commissioners, &c., in making the Registry. Election officers, too, must be supplied with stamps for the making of naturalization papers. These will cost a pretty little sum. Our former calculation placed the additional expense of holding the elections under the Registry Law, at $2,000 per annum. We are satisfied that these figures are below the mark. It will reach at least $3,000 and probably more. As for the people saving a day, that is all humbug. They may have to lose two days in order to get themselves registered.

We would have no objection to the doing away with Spring elections, were it not that by doing so and by fixing the time for choosing township and borough officers on the day of the general election, every little office, from that of Justice of the Peace to that of Town Clerk, is thrown into politics. As partizans we are satisfied with this arrangement, for it will strengthen the hands of the democracy in this county. But on principle, we are opposed to it. We have reason to think that the Inquirer favors the Registry Law, the abolition of Spring elections included, only because it is a measure of its party. Of course nobody expects that paper to have sufficient independence to condemn anything that is done by the radical leaders.

THE OFFICE-SEEKING PATRIOTS.

It is calculated, says the Statesman, that there are forty-two thousand offices in the gift of the United States Government. These offices are suited to all capacities, from the gigantic intellect of Grant to the microscopic faculties of a whiskey-taster deputy in the Revenue Department. So long as there is one kind of capacity, that for absorption, other qualifications are a matter of small moment. Happily, under our free and glorious institutions, every citizen is equally eligible for every position, even up to the Presidency. It may be said with truth by the admiring midwife at the birth of every free and equal American child, "Here is a lawful candidate for the Presidency." For each of the forty-two thousand offices mentioned above, it is estimated there are ten applicants, or 420,000 Radical patriots, each and every one of them "trooly loil," and ready to adhere to the public treasury through thick and thin with the tenacity of the daughters of the horseleech. Four hundred and fifty thousand must be nearly one-fifth of the whole Radical party. It is a full hundred thousand larger than the whole military force of the South in the late war. It is indeed a noble army of paupers. If Grant had received as many applicants for places on his devious line to Richmond, he might have shortened the war nearly a year. None of these fine fellows require to be drafted for the civil service of the country. The only drafts indispensable for these are drafts on the treasury. Without undertaking to depreciate the vast services which Radicalism has rendered the country—the respectability it has conferred upon the United States; the immunity it has virtually secured us from all foreign wars, even should the national honor be involved, by building up a debt as great as that of England; the economy and honesty it has introduced in every branch of the public service; the pure, exemplary, and statesmanlike personages it has introduced into the national councils, and the fine state of feeling, so favorable to reconstruction, which it has cultivated in the Southern States—we still think it is asking too high a price when one man out of five of the exemplary Radical party demands to be fed from the public crib. That the vast interests of this country should be confided to such impecunious patriots is a fearful reflection. It is a consoling thought, however, to people of a sanguine temperament, that, out of the 420,000 squalling mouths, only 42,000 can, by any possibility, find teats, so that at least 378,000 must go away disappointed and frantic. Here is a number, nearly equal to Grant's majority at the Presidential election, who may feel themselves called upon to disapprove the measures of his administration in 1872. "It's an ill wind that blows nobody no good."

THERE is hardly a single radical paper in the State that does not admit that the legislatures of the last three or four years have been shamelessly corrupt, and recklessly extravagant in their appropriation of the public moneys, and that the last legislature was the worst of them all. For several years the radical politicians have promised reform in the legislature, but the people renewed their trust only to be more outrageously deceived. At present we are again regaled with the same promises which, of course, are only made to be again broken. The radicals cannot reform the legislature. Success intoxicates them and they reel and stagger on in their reckless career. They have cheated the people too often to be trusted in the future. They may profess to be never so friendly to reform, yet it needs but little discernment to know

"—their friendship all a cheat,
Their smiles hypocrisy, their words deceit."

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—A consular agent of our government who has resided at Cuba during the past year has arrived here, and to-day had an interview with the President for the purpose of informing him respecting affairs on the island. He gives his opinion that the Spanish authorities will be unable to suppress the rebellion, and that the Insurgents will eventually establish their independence. He says that the Spanish troops are not familiar with the mode of warfare adopted by the insurgents in fighting in detachments and guerilla bands. If they would come out in open field and give battle the Spaniards would undoubtedly whip them. The warfare adopted by the insurgents is harassing to the Spanish troops. The insurgent leaders inspire their troops by assuring them that reinforcements will constantly be received from the United States, and that they have the sympathies of the Americans in their struggle for independence. When the sickly season sets in the ranks of the Spanish troops will be fearfully decimated by diseases incident to the climate, to which they are not acclimated. It appears the parties who purchased the steam ram Atlanta from the Navy Department some two weeks ago did not make purchase either for the Cubans or the Spaniards, but for Salnave, for the Dominican Government.

Chicago, May 18.—The following military intelligence was received at General Sheridan's headquarters to-day: Lieutenant Mason Custer, writing from Fort Hayes, Kansas, May 10th, gives an account of the killing of some Indians who were confined at that point. The chiefs were ordered to be removed, in care of the guard, from the corral to the guard-room, when they gathered in their tents and began the death whoop, and, taking out their knives, attacted the soldiers. Cardigan attacted the sergeant of the guard, and was knocked senseless by a blow with the butt of a musket. Sallie, a ferocious squaw, wielding a knife, tried to sheath it in the body of an officer, when one of the guard shot her dead. Big Head looked with scorn on the circle of bayonets surrounding him, and stabbed Sergeant Haze, dangerously wounding him in the back. A guard shot him dead. "Dull Knife" tried to stab everybody near him, and he was picked seriously by bayonets. He and the senseless Cardigan were then disarmed and placed in the guardhouse.

Omaha, May 18.—A wagon train of the Fifth Cavalry arrived at Fort McPherson yesterday, under the command of Lieut. Forbush. They report that seven companies of the Fifth Cavalry, under Gen. Carr, while moving from Kansas towards Fort McPherson, struck a camp of about 500 Cheyennes on the 13th; a fight ensued, in which the Indians were defeated, leaving 25 warriors on the field and carrying off a large number of wounded. Gen. Carr lost three men killed; one officer and two privates wounded.—Gen. Carr is still in pursuit, near Medicine Lake creek.

A dispatch from Helena, Montana, says that from one hundred and fifty to two hundred Santee Sioux attacked a settlement on Muscle Shell river on May 8th. Seventy white men remained in the stockade and sixty sallied out on the Indians, when a desperate fight ensued, lasting seven hours, and thirty Indians were killed, including a half breed, and thirty were scalped. The remainder escaped by swimming the river. One white man was killed and another badly wounded. It is reported that reinforcements of from two to three hundred Santee Sioux are coming up to attack Muscle Shell again, but the whites are prepared for them.

SUICIDE.—On last Saturday morning, the 15th inst., a young man named Zachariah Heffley, residing at Berlin, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. Mr. H. had been an invalid for several years, having contracted disease (pulmonary, we believe, in the army, Co. F. 142 Reg't. P. V.) and recently was quite ill. On Friday night, we are informed, two persons had been with him and when they left him in the morning, nothing unusual was noticed in his demeanor. About six o'clock on Saturday morning, his wife was in his room and placed their little child by his side on the bed. Shortly afterwards, he requested her to remove the child which she did, and went into the kitchen to prepare some breakfast. A few minutes afterwards another person entered the sick man's room and was horrified at finding him dead, with his throat cut and his lifeless hand still grasping the razor. It is not known how he got the razor, but it is probable that it had been left about a window near which his bed stood, and which he might have reached from where he was lying. The gash extended from one side of the neck to the other, leaving the carotid arteries uninjured, but the trachea was almost entirely severed, causing instantaneous death.—Somerset Democrat.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catsarh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood: then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5 Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

Never run in debt—but especially with a shoemaker, for then you can't say your sole is your own.

A sure way to turn people's heads—just go late to church on next, or any other Sunday.

Wheat, all over this great country, is reported to be in superb condition—standing thick on the ground—and of unusual promising growth.

Blair county radicals nominate candidates on the 7th day of August next. It is to be done by the "Crawford county system."

Country cousins may soon expect to be troubled with bugs—the June bugs that nature sends to eat up the vegetation—and big bugs from the city.

Do not allow a bird to be killed in your orchard this season. They compensate for your neglect to the trees. You do not know how much you owe them for the fruit you have.

The juice of lemon a day, taken in water, will cure the most obstinate case of neuralgia. No sugar should be taken, as it has a tendency to counteract the effects of the lemon juice.

MILLER & BOWSER, have just received at their spacious store room, a large and elegant stock of new spring and summer goods, and invite the public to call and examine them. Go and see them.

P. O. REMOVAL.—Major Washabaugh has entered upon his duties as postmaster of this place. The office has been removed to Shuck's new building, on Pitt street, two doors west of the Washington Hotel.

NEW ROAD.—A new road is being made between the towns of Riddlesburg and Hopewell. This is a much needed improvement, as it has been impossible, heretofore, to go from one place to the other without going "around by the bridge."

To dealers in liquors we would recommend the house of Little & Mechling, Pittsburg. This firm is represented by Mr. J. C. Kiser, formerly of this place. Joe is an excellent young man and will do the fair thing with his customers. Patronize him.

The rules governing the primary elections of the "Union Republican"(!) party of Blair county state that "Democrats shall not be allowed to vote at Republican nominating meetings." Superfluous, gentlemen. No Democrat would be seen in such company.

LEGAL TENDERS AND FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.—We are soon to have a new style of greenbacks and fractional currency. Let us hope that the coming "promises to pay" will be an improvement on those now in circulation, and not, like the new post-office stamps, inferior to the old issue.

SCHOOL FUND.—The Legislature appropriated for common schools $500,000. The amount paid to County Superintendents is deducted from this amount, also some special appropriations, such as Normal Schools. The balance is then divided among the different districts of the State on the basis of the number of taxables, all districts receiving 50 cents per taxable.

RATHER ROUGH.—The Fulton Republican handles one of the "organs" of radicalism without gloves, and promises to say some ugly things if the aforesaid "organ" doesn't conduct itself in a genteel manner. "Our" Congressman is not complimented, either. "The combat deepens." Let 'er deepen!

LINDEN'S LETTERS.—We are sorry that we cannot give our readers one of "Linden's" interesting letters this week. He has gone sight-seeing.—"But Linden saw another sight," and away he went after it. Still, Linden has promised, and his promises mean something. So our readers may look for another batch of his spicy letters ere long.

FEARFUL FALL.—On last Friday a man named Evans fell from the roof of one of the new houses belonging to the Kemble Coal and Iron Co., at Riddlesburg. He fell a distance of over thirty feet. No bones were broken but he received severe internal injuries. He was conveyed to his home at Hopewell and is doing well.

LOOK OUT FOR BARGAINS.—H. F. Irvine has just returned from the east with a splendid assortment of boots and shoes, and everything else in his line of business, which he will sell to his old and new friends, at a very small profit, for cash. Try the "Regulator's system, and our word for it, he will sell you goods at prices that will give general satisfaction.

Now is the time to buy cheap wall paper at the Inquirer Book Store. They have sixty different kinds, selling at from 10 cts to $3.00 per bolt. They will sell you paper cheaper than you can whitewash, and it will last you ten times as long. Go and see for yourselves.

CROUSE'S RESORT.—Do you want good segars? If you do, go to Crouse's Resort. If you want good chewing tobacco, go to Crouse's Resort. If you want good smoking tobacco, of all the best brands, go to Crouse's Resort, next door to G. R. Oster & Co's Store, on Pitt street, where you will find Dan always ready and willing to accommodate his customers to the choicest and best brands of segars and tobacco to be found anywhere.

One of the "organs" is informed that we did not republish the Fulton Republican's article on the Bedford post office for the purpose of injuring "our" Congressman. That little "onpleasantness" he may settle with those whose expressed wishes he has so shamefully outraged. We copied that article, without comment, just for the purpose of informing our readers how the cat was jumping yonder way. We wouldn't injure a child, much less "our" illustrious Congressman! But a little ventilation is essential to health and happiness, Mr. "Organ." Muchly so.

A CARD.—To the Democracy of Bedford county:—Having been prevented by protracted sickness from making a canvas of the county, and being still confined to my house and unable to go abroad, I have, after consultation with as many friends as I have been able to see, come to the conclusion to withdraw my name from the list of candidates for Sheriff. I shall always be grateful to the kind friends in my own township and in other parts of the county who offered me their support. I return them my sincere thanks and hope they will approve the action I have just taken, in consideration of the circumstances. HENRY FLUCK.

Woodberry, May 24, 1869.

A CARD.—To the Democratic Voters of Bedford county:—Upon consultation with my friends, and being unable, on account of sickness in my family to canvas the county, I respectfully withdraw my name as a candidate for Sheriff. To those of my friends who have urged my claims, I shall feel grateful for their support, and if at another time I shall offer myself as a candidate, I hope to merit your confidence and support. JOHN NELSON.

CHURCH CONSECRATION.—Trinity German Reformed Church of Friends Cove, just completed, will be, by Divine permission, consecrated to the worship of the Triune God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, on Sunday, June 6th, 1869. Rev. E. V. Gerhart, D. D., President of the Theological Seminary of the German Reformed Church in the United States, has consented to be present and preach the dedicatory sermon. The ministers also of the Reformed Church in the county have all promised to attend and participate in the solemn services of the occasion. There will be confirmation and preparatory services in the Church on Saturday previous. Ministers of sister denominations, and the public generally, are most cordially invited to attend.

FROM BEDFORD TO SAN FRANCISCO. For the benefit of those contemplating a journey to San Francisco, we annex the following table of distances.

Bedford to Mt Dallas,	6½
Mt Dallas to Huntingdon,	55
Huntingdon to Pittsburg,	151
Pittsburg to Chicago,	468
Chicago to Omaha,	491
Omaha to Bryan,	858
Bryan to Ogden,	233
Ogden to Elks,	278
Elks to Sacramento,	465
Sacramento to San Francisco,	117
Total,	3122½

The journey from Bedford to San Francisco can be made in about six days. A westward journey of thirty one days will bring the traveler within sight of the shores of China.

CONCERNING CURRENCY.—Collectors of specimens of money will now do well to save a clean piece of each kind of fractional currency, as it is all to be called in and no more used. The new series will be entirely different, and the same is so of all the greenbacks that are to be issued hereafter. The quality of the paper is to be changed, and the new style is now in process of manufacture under government supervision. It is thought to be impossible to counterfeit the currency that is to succeed that now in use. New and different presses will be used in printing, and a part of the work will be done in some other city than Washington.

CLEARFIELD BANK ROBBERS.—Two men were arrested in the edge of the woods, near Centreville, this county, on the 19th inst., by Deputy Sheriff Huzzard and John Defibaugh, believed to be the persons that broke into the County National Bank, of Clearfield, on the night of the 12th of May, and robbed said bank of $15,000 in currency and $4,500 in U. S. Bonds.—These parties were brought to Bedford and lodged in jail. The officers of the bank were notified, and the Cashier of said bank, D. W. Moore, Esq., came on next day. In the meantime, P. M. Anderson and John B. Whip, of Centreville, had found a package containing $4,500 in U. S. Bonds and $60,-00 in new postal currency secreted in a hollow stump within a few rods from where the parties were arrested. Messrs. Anderson and Whip immediately brought this money to Bedford, where it was identified as the property of the bank. On a preliminary hearing before Justice Nicodemus, the parties gave their names as J. M. Newman and Jacob Wilson. The one calling himself J. M. Newman endeavored to throw away $18.00 in new postal currency on his way to Bedford, but was detected by the Deputy Sheriff. District Attorney Kerr made an application to have them removed to Clearfield county for trial, and Sheriff Steckman was directed to convey them to the Clearfield county jail.

Nearly four thousand persons starved to death in London last year.

COLIN LOYER.—On Saturday last, this gentleman retired from the Postmastership of this place and Maj. Daniel Washabaugh, the new appointee, entered upon his duties. Of the new man we shall say nothing, save that he has at various times filled public offices, and that he will no doubt discharge his present duty faithfully. The retiring officer, however, in justice, demands more than a passing notice. Mr. Loyer was appointed postmaster of this place, in 1848, by President Taylor, and served in that capacity until the inauguration of President Pierce, in 1853. His services as an efficient officer were so generally recognized, both here and at the Department at Washington, that when President Lincoln was re-elected, in 1864, he was again appointed Postmaster, to serve for four years. After the tragic death of the President, and the elevation of Andrew Johnson to that office and the annunciation of his policy for the restoration of the Southern States, Mr. Loyer supported the President, firmly believing that he was but carrying out the doctrine of peace and reconciliation, as repeatedly expressed by President Lincoln after the close of hostilities. Subsequently, when the breach between Mr. Johnson and the radicals in Congress ripened into open war, and culminated in the impeachment of that high official, Mr. Loyer was again found by the side of the President, with the full knowledge, too, that if Mr. Johnson be convicted, he, (Mr. L.) would soon be deposed. But he choose rather to take the side of right, than to unite with the boisterous throng, clamoring for the conviction of a President who was but endeavoring to carry out his sworn duty. The President was acquitted, and Mr. Loyer retained his position as postmaster, giving perfect satisfaction until he retired. We but speak what all must concur in, when we say, in conclusion, that as a public servant, he has no tried superior in our midst. Success to him in whatever business he may engage hereafter.

CLERGYMEN.—Some people talk a great deal about ministers and the cost of keeping them, paying their house rent, and other items of salary. Did such croakers ever think that it costs thirty five millions of dollars to pay the sallaries of American lawyers; that twelve millions of dollars are paid out annually to keep our criminals, and ten millions of dollars annually to keep the dogs in the midst of us alive, while only six millions of dollars are spent annually to keep six thousand ministers in the United States.

COLBURN'S PATENT

RED JACKET AXE.

Is better than our regular shaped Axes for these reasons. First—It cuts deeper. Second—It don't stick in the Wood. Third—It does not jar the hand. Fourth—No time is wasted in taking the Axe out of the cut. Fifth—With the same labor you will do one-third more work than with regular Axes. Red paint has nothing to do with the good qualities of this Axe, for all our Axes are painted red. If your hardware store does not keep our goods, we will gladly answer inquiries or fill your orders direct, or give you the name of the nearest dealer who keeps our Axes.

LET EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD READ THIS!

Their own interests are at stake in this matter. Everybody has suffered so much from the accursed CREDIT SYSTEM, if system it can be called, that I intend to offer to everybody a panacea for the evil in the future.

On and after the first day of June, 1869, I will sell goods EXCLUSIVELY FOR CASH OR PRODUCE. No doubt some customers may be lost to me, but I flatter myself that it will be only those from whom I cannot collect present accounts.

All goods will be sold at about one-half the profit now paid by consumers. The people often complain of Bedford prices being higher than elsewhere, and it is doubtless true, to some extent, for the reason that good customers have had to pay for others' goods with an additional profit on their own.

Let an intelligent community sustain me in this enterprise and they WILL SAVE FROM TEN TO FIFTEEN PER CENT. ON EVERYTHING THEY CONSUME.

may14m3 H. F. IRVINE.

NOTICE.—All accounts not settled by the first day of June, 1869, either by cash or note, will be put in the hands of an officer for collection. Friends will please take notice, and by so doing will save trouble and costs.

OUR NEW FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE, which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.

SCHEETZ'S
CELEBRATED
BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. *DR. J. C. Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Miscellaneous.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Billious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowled
